LBJ: Once the private residence for The Driskill's most famous love story, the suite pays tribute to the former President and First lady, with a regal feel and modern Texas touches. Relax and restore in the impressive stained-glass bathroom with claw-foot tub and walk in shower. Open the balcony doors from your living room to Austin's famed Sixth Street views.

Heritage Studio Suite: In addition to your pair of Presidential Suites, a Mezzanine Wedding includes one of our classic Landmark Studio Suites, The Heritage. Tucked away in the corner of the Mezzanine, guests can enjoy their own private balcony as well as close access to the Governor's Boardroom.

Deluxe King Rooms: To complete the experience, your accommodations are rounded out with two elegant and timeliness Deluxe King guestrooms.

Mezzanine VENUES

The Driskill Ballroom has served as a venue for grand celebrations and inaugural balls for over 130 years. Today, with its intricate finishes and wall-to-wall murals, the Driskill Ballroom remains the quintessential venue to host a romantic wedding ceremony, lively cocktail hour, or night of dancing.

Maximilian Room: Featuring features one of history's most famed wedding gifts, eight gilded mirrors once belonging to the Empress Carlotta of Mexico, adorn the walls of this soft and airy space. Enhance its feminine charm by curating a dessert lounge or stunning dessert display.

Jim Hogg Parlor: Where Lyndon B. Johnson received the successful results of his 1964 presidential race, the Jim Hogg Parlor is the optimal location for your very own cigar lounge or speakeasy with craft cocktails. This handsome space can be transformed for your guests to enjoy, relax, and unwind.

Governor's Boardroom, located next door to the Heritage Studio Suite, is characterized by its massive granite table and swanky feel. Relax in one of the executive leather chairs and enjoy a spirit as you anticipate your big day.

Austin Room: Utilize this flexible space to enjoy a private moment together before making your grand entrance. Rejoin your guests for your reception after being served a private dinner by your personal wedding attendant.
